

Unit 2: Dots and the two ye

نقطے اور دو یے

1 In this unit

The dot-confusable cluster ب ت ن ی: same body, different dots; ی for ī and y; ے for e and ai only at the end.

How long: About 3 hours for a child, 1.5 for an adult. Do 10 minutes a day, short and happy.

2 What to say and show, letter by letter

	Say	How the pen moves	Often mixed up with
ت	te soft dental 't', tongue on the teeth (Spanish 'tú')	start top-right, shallow bowl leftwards, hook up; dots last	be, nūn
ی	choṭī ye چھوٹی یے 'y' in yes at the start	a bowl that swings back under itself; at the start and middle, the 2 dots below come last	be, te, nūn, baṛī ye
ے	baṛī ye بڑی یے 'ay' in day	one long flat sweep to the left, curling up at the end	choṭī ye

3 How to use the sheets

- Trace and write: one page per letter. Start at the dot, follow the arrow; body first, dots last.
- Look-alikes: circle the same letter, then sort by dots.
- Join the letters: standing letters into a joined word.
- Read and match: word to meaning.
- Reading practice: words, sentences, story.
- Dictation: the grown-up says it, the child writes it.
- Unit check: 10 questions. The answer key is the last page of the unit-check PDF; in the unit pack the keys are on the last pages.

4 How to check

- Letters: cover the sound, point to the letter, the child says it. 3 of 4 right is a pass.
- Writing: look at the start dot and the direction, not at how pretty it is. Right to left, body first, dots last.
- Unit check: 8 of 10 means go on. Under 8: redo the look-alike and trace sheets, try again tomorrow.
- Praise effort: "you started on the right", "good dots". One sheet a day beats five at once.

5 A 10-minute sitting

2 min warm-up: point to last time's letters, the child says them. 5 min the sheet of the day: say it, trace it, write it. 3 min read it back together and end on something done well.
