

Unit 6: Breath and nose

سانس اور ناک

1 In this unit

do-chashmī he makes aspirates (بھ، پھ، تھ، جھ، دھ، گھ); nūn ghunna nasalises; میں ہیں ہاں کہاں are among the most frequent words in Urdu.

How long: About 3 hours for a child, 1.5 for an adult. Do 10 minutes a day, short and happy.

2 What to say and show, letter by letter

	Say	How the pen moves	Often mixed up with
ن	nūn ghunna نون غنہ nasalises the vowel before it, like French 'bon'	deep round bowl	nūn
ه	do-chashmī he دو چشمی ہے a puff of breath after the letter before it: بھ، پھ، تھ، جھ، دھ، گھ...	draw the small loop, then the second loop beside it, in one flowing stroke	choṭī he (gol he)

3 How to use the sheets

- Trace and write: one page per letter. Start at the dot, follow the arrow; body first, dots last.
- Look-alikes: circle the same letter, then sort by dots.
- Join the letters: standing letters into a joined word.
- Read and match: word to meaning.
- Reading practice: words, sentences, story.
- Dictation: the grown-up says it, the child writes it.
- Unit check: 10 questions. The answer key is the last page of the unit-check PDF; in the unit pack the keys are on the last pages.

4 How to check

- Letters: cover the sound, point to the letter, the child says it. 3 of 4 right is a pass.
- Writing: look at the start dot and the direction, not at how pretty it is. Right to left, body first, dots last.
- Unit check: 8 of 10 means go on. Under 8: redo the look-alike and trace sheets, try again tomorrow.
- Praise effort: "you started on the right", "good dots". One sheet a day beats five at once.

5 A 10-minute sitting

2 min warm-up: point to last time's letters, the child says them. 5 min the sheet of the day: say it, trace it, write it. 3 min read it back together and end on something done well.
